Read the Line & Do A Drill Read the Line & Do A Drill By: DJ Hill, TK White, CS Fletcher This little drill is great to build on your skills with simple mechanics with a hiccup system. The lesson also includes the ability to teach the standard three count without a bell and with a designated signifying object to help visualize the concept. This is a great end of the class so feel free to leave for the final bell, but don't go to class too early as you will want to make sure you can see the end of the drill properly! This simple drill can be done without bells and with a large or small object to designate which foot to hop to as a hiccup. The foot to hop to is shown in the drill with 2x6's.Q: Generating periodic event in MySQL I have
